In Memoriam

In loving memory of my beloved husband and father, Edna Mann, who passed away 3 years ago today, Feb. 9. You bid no one a last farewell, You said good-bye to none, Your loving heart had ceased to beat.

Before we knew you had gone, God gave us strength to bear it, And courage to meet the blow, But what it meant to lose you, This world will never know. To those who have a father, Guard him with tender care, For you will never know his value, Until you see his vacant chair. Sadly missed, By Wife & Children. 2-19-1p

In memory of our dear Mother, Susie C. Marshall, who left us two years ago, February 8, 1974.

February is here again
Two long years ago,
There was nothing we could do,
When the angels took you away.

We cannot bring back the old days,
When we were all together.
But secret tears of love
Will always keep us close together.

There is an open gate at the end of the road,
Through which each must go alone.
And there is a light we cannot see,
Our Savior claims his own.

So looking back in tenderness,
Along the path together we trod,
We cherish the wonderful years we had with you.
And leave the rest to God.

May we live and serve our Master,
Walk the straight and narrow way,
So when life on earth is ended,
We will meet you in Heaven some sweet day.

Sadly missed and loved by her husband, children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. 2-19-1p

Senior Class Play

If you've ever been to a show on "The Great White Way," you know how great the theater can be. When Broadway moves to the South, the theater transforms to a superb and spectacular happening of sight, sound and song.

That's just what's going to occur here during the last week end of March. On the nights of March 26 & 27, the Senior Class of Appomattox County High School will present "The Yankee Doodle", a two-act musical comedy. The play is about the exploits of a group of high school students in putting together a community celebration of the Fourth of July in New Rochelle, New York.

In starring roles will be Keith Coleman and Charlene Rush. Keith stars as 'Duke Norton,' a high school senior who is pulled between becoming a rock singer or accepting an appointment to West Point. Charlene portrays 'Mary Hurley,' Duke's girl friend who wants him to accept his appointment to West Point.

Directing the extravaganza will be Brenda Waldron. Choreography will be expertly handled by Pat Volturo. Technical advisor is Joyce Sweet, while Evelyn Heising will assist in costuming. Much enthusiasm has been generated about the upcoming theatrical performance. Said several students involved with the play, "When I first heard and saw the play, I was doubtful. Now I think this will turn out really great."

The director, equally optimistic, remarked, "This is the best group of students I have worked with thus far. If they continue to respond to direction as they are now, this play will definitely be a winner."

From the same class that gave the world "Mess America", come out and see their production of "The Yankee Doodle."
